Terms and Conditions

Electronics Club IIT Delhi

To participate in the workshop, the teams are expected to abide by the following rules:

1. They should not damage / steal any item from the lab. In case an item is found damaged / missing, the team would have to make arrangements to replace the item on their own and the electronics club will not bear the responsibility for the loss.
2. One of the team members is expected to submit their Identity cards at the beginning of the workshop. The Identity card will be returned to them after their table has been inspected for any damage / loss.
3. The team members are free to arrange any or all the items on their own. Paying the stipulated amount is mandatory only if the team purchases the components through the club and this amount is non-negotiable.
4. You are expected to collect and preserve a receipt of your payment. You would need to bring the receipt to claim your components at the start of the workshop. In case of any confusion you may be asked to produce the receipt during the workshop.
